

designee, should be contacted immediately.

2. The Dean of Student Access and Success, or designee, will notify medical emergency personnel (as needed).
3. Medical emergency personnel will transport the student to the hospital for medical evaluation and mental health assessment upon arrival on campus.

Do not place any yourself in danger.

5. Take the suicidal student to an area away from others

6. Notify the Dean of Student Affairs and the Director of Student Health Services