shall be stayed until the Board makes a final decision after a review of the case. In the event the decision of the President is affirmed after such review, the person appealing and the President shall be notified by certified e-mail and the sanction shall be effective immediately upon receipt by the President of the decision rendered by the Board.

When reviewing student appeals involving the sanction of expulsion, the Board will review all relevant information and records of applicable college disciplinary proceedings to ensure that due process has been followed. In the event of a disciplinary review or disciplinary action, the Board may act as it deems reasonable and proper in all the circumstances and in answer to all its responsibilities under the law.
