The U.S. Department of Education indicated you have attended multiple colleges/universities over several years. This is considered unusual enrollment history in regards to federal financial aid. To review your information, visit NSLDS.

Some students who have an unusual enrollment history have legitimate reasons for their enrollment at multiple institutions. However, such an enrollment history requires a review to determine whether there are valid reasons for the unusual enrollment history. This must be resolved before you will receive financial aid.

Students may also be selected for this process because they received a Federal Pell Grant the last three years, statement, academic degree plans, academic transcripts, etc.

If you wish to appeal this decision, please provide this form along with a separate statement for each institution and provide an explanation for your failure to earn academic credit. Please refer to a situation that occurred during those academic terms in which you failed to earn credit. Within your statement, please include the name of the school and academic period in question. Please include any third party documentation which would support your statement.
